

something for everyone. If you fancy an egg and bacon sandwich or bangers and mash and a beer, it's there alongside cop an rising and hand-cut Scottish steaks. Equally, there are plenty of draught ales available (Bass, Flowers IPA, Marston's Pedigree) and a superb selection of wines by the glass as well as a full wine list.

They pride themselves at the King's Arms on their affordable prices; and rightly so. The pub also offers excellent accommodation for those people looking for a longer taste of life in the English countryside.

Handy Hint: Don't look at the dessert menu – you'll want them all and regret it for as long as you live.

Whilst there you must: Tuck into the huge portions of freshly cooked food – a 16oz rump steak is always on the specials board!

● The King's Arms Inn, Stane Street, Ockley, Surrey, RH5 5TS. Tel: 01306 711224. www.thekingssarmsockley.co.uk

The King's Arms, Ockley

CAN THERE be anything more appealing in the cold, bleak winter months than a roaring log fire and good old fashioned sized portions? That's what you'll find at the King's Arms in Ockley, plus all the other trappings of a traditional

English village inn such as oak beams, low ceilings and warm, friendly service.

The menu is comprehensive and there's